The Real Crew Teams – what can I do to prepare?

Firstly, read this information, consider the questions at the end of this letter and respond to them via e-mail. Secondly, ask any questions that you have – remember, the quality of your life is impacted by the quality of your questions.

Commitment to Excellence

“Excellence has no finish”

Excellence is never an accident. It is achieved in an organisation or team only as a result of an unrelenting and vigorous insistence on the highest standards of performance. It requires an unswerving expectancy of quality from everyone involved.

Excellence is contagious. It provides zest and vitality to the organisation, team and participants.

Excellence demands commitment and a tenacious dedication from the leadership of the organisation. Once it is accepted and expected, it must be nourished and continually reviewed and renewed. It is a never ending process of learning and growing. It requires a spirit of motivation and boundless energy.

Excellence inspires, it electrifies.

Excellence is a team's lifeline – it is a state of mind put into action. It is a road map to success. Excellence in a team is important: Because it is EVERYTHING!

On Assisting

The success of the REAL Education Workshops is largely due to the commitment of each member of the Team – and their commitment to excellence.

Assisting is a game of excellence.

There are no rules except those which come from your own integrity 'to do whatever it takes'

It is a very high level game.

It is only for those who are willing to play with a very light heart and enough self belief in their own abilities that they are able to praise the abilities of others.

Assisting is also a game of service, where your own needs are put aside for the purpose of supporting others and the team.

To serve, is to empower yourself and others and, as a team, to create miracles.

Remember, you are choosing to be 'of service' (with honour, dignity and respect) not a servant!

Purpose of the Real Crew Team

The purpose of the Team is to 'do whatever it takes' to support the participants in experiencing transformation, and to inspire each other to elevate to a new level of excellence and leadership.

'Come and be a part of the growing REAL Crew Team and enhance your own personal growth while you support others in their transformation, growth and awareness' – REAL Crew Team.
